On the sixth day of May, the bill was negatived by the Judiciary Special Committee. At the request of the sponsor the bill was held and a hearing given to him, after the action when the bill was negatived, and after a hearing which was had on the third day of June, again the Judiciary Special Committee re-voted its negative recommendation on the bill. This was after a hearing by the sponsor. The first negative of the bill was on the sixth day of May. On the seventh day of May, the sponsor introduced a similar bill and had it referred to the Committee on Manufactures, of which he is the chairman, and the bill was reported to the House on the 27th day of May, and is now improperly on the calendar, and I take it that this measure is improperly before the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will ask the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott) if the bills are identical?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, the chairman of the Judiciary Special Committee at no time reported any action on this bill to the House. The bill that was referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Manufactures was acted on by that committee at the request of a member of that committee, and it was reported out on May 27th, by Mr. A. R. B. Fox, from that committee, and placed on the calendar.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, these bills are identical. The amendment which has been offered to be inserted in the bill was a portion of the bill which was referred to the Committee on Judiciary Special, printed on the second page of the pink bill. That was referred to the Judiciary Special Committee and it makes these bills absolutely identical. I take it that these are identical bills, and the action of the committee in having passed upon the bill before the Judiciary Special Committee on the 6th day of May, prevented any other similar measure being introduced and referred to a committee of a concurrent power to make a report to this House. No bill could be thus reported to this House and be a proper legislative measure. It is void, it has no legislative force, and it is improperly on the calendar. The only action or the only proceedings can be to have this bill placed on the calendar notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the Judiciary Special Committee. In regard to the statement that there was no actual report of the bill by the committee of the House when the committee negatived the bill, I desire to say that on the 6th day of May, when the bill was negatived, as a courtesy to the sponsor and as is the custom of a committee to do, the sponsor was informed as to the action of the committee and he requested a hearing, which was given. On the third day of June he appeared before that committee, argued his bill and expressed his views, and again the committee, by its vote, ssutained its previous action and requested that the bill be so reported to the House. The bill then left the committee. It was held by one of the members of the committee, who informs me, that he did not report the bill to the House, at the request of the sponsor of the bill. Legislative action of the committee was had, we voted on the bill, passed on its merits and negatived it. A committee of this House has the responsibility placed upon it and as the committee should, we observed our responsibility. I take it, Mr. Speaker, that of course there was no desire on the part of the gentlman from Lancaster to be offensive to the Judiciary Special Committee, but this action is non-legislative, it is non-parliamentary, and it is improper and should not be considered by the Speaker of this House. Therefore, I insist upon my point of order, that it is not a proper legislative matter.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott), does he understand that the bill was reported to the House as having been negatived?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, it was. We passed our votes. We voted that bill negatively, and that bill was so recorded in our committee and given to our member to report to the House. The member holds that bill in the body of the House, without the authority of the committee, at the request of the sponsor. The sponsor, Mr. Speaker, had no right to make a request of that character or make an improper request of that character, and the member improperly holding it does not give to us the bill in this body.

The SPEAKER. If the bill had been reported to the House negatively, there would be no question in the mind of the Chair that the point of order raised by the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott) was entirely in order; but in so far as the House has never had the bill and therefore has no knowledge of the action of the committee until now, it does not seem to the Chair as though he could decide the point of order well taken.

Mr. SCOTT. But, Mr. Speaker, this same stand could never have been had to have two measures in a legislative body. His one measure was introduced in this body on the twenty-seventh of April and referred by this body to a committee for consideration. At a later period on the seventh of May, he introduced a similar bill and had it referred to another committee; but that bill is improperly introduced, it is improperly referred, it is improperly considered; in other words, Mr. Speaker, it is not a legislative bill from its initiation; it has no right in the House, and I not only raise that point of order, Mr. Speaker, that the bill is improperly upon the House calendar now because of the negativing of the bill by our committee, but I hold that it is an improper measure before the House because it was introduced at a later period and referred to a committee at a later period than the similar bill introduced by the same sponsor was introduced and referred to the Committee of Judiciary Special.

The SPEAKER. The point of order raised by the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott) that the bill is improperly upon the calendar because a committee has once negatived a similar bill, that bill having never been reported to the House, the Chair must decide that point of order is not well taken. The House can only deal with matters that have come before it and the bill that the gentleman from Philadelphia speaks of as having been negatived, unfortunately, was never reported to the House and is not a matter of record in the House.

Mr. SCOTT. But Mr. Speaker, my other point of order is that the bill that we are now considering is improperly before the House because it is improperly introduced. In order, Mr. Speaker, that there will be no question about it, I now report from the Judiciary Special Committee the bill that was withheld from being reported to the House at the request of the sponsor of the bill. I do that, Mr. Speaker, while I am—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I raise the point of order that reports of committees are not in order at this time. I further raise the point of order that these two bills are not identical.

The SPEAKER. Reports of committees can be had at any time upon unanimous consent. The gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott) is asking unanimous consent.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I object to the receipt of reports of committees at this time.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to the point of order that the bill that is now being considered is improperly before the House because it at no time received legislative life. It was introduced at a subsequent period, as the record of the House will show, and which the Speaker must take notice of, at a period subsequent to the time that the other measure had been introduced in the House and had been referred to a committee. I take it, Mr. Speaker, that had our committee never taken any action upon the measure, if we had allowed the bill to remain in our committee unacted upon, that the House could not take any action upon a subsequent bill that was similar, introduced and referred to a committee, because, Mr. Speaker, the orderly parliamentary procedure would be that if the bill was first introduced was not acted upon, the committee should be discharged from consideration of it. No legislative right is given to the sponsor of the bill, because he is dissatisfied with the bill or the action of the committee upon it, to introduce another bill and have it referred to another committee; otherwise, Mr. Speaker, there would be great confusion in legislation. Were he to introduce a bill and have it referred to a committee and then introduce a similar bill and have it referred to another committee of the House, wherever the Speaker would want to send the bill, such confusion would end in legislative turmoil and such confusion would confuse a legislative body so that there could be no logical conclusion as to legislative procedure.

Now, Mr. Speaker, my point of order is, if the Speaker's thought is that the point of order, that the fact that we negatived the bill prevented it, if that is not taken by the Speaker as a point of order with force, then I urge my other point of order, that at no time did this bill have legislative life, and is improperly before the House, improperly introduced and, therefore, improperly upon the calendar and should not be considered by this House, and that the only legislative matter that is before the House is the House bill introduced by the gentleman from Lancaster (Mr. Hess) which bill is still in the Judiciary Special Committee, if we have not properly reported that bill out.

Now, Mr. Speaker, as to your other ruling and thought—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott) will kindly let the Chair say something about the second suggestion made by him.

The Chair is of the opinon that a bill introduced in duplicate is not a violation of a rule of the House. A gentleman might introduce a bill which is referred to a certain committee and he might, in subsequent time, introduce another bill and have it referred to anther committee. The Chair is of the opinion that the House only deals with matters that are referred properly from a committee, and therefore cannot agree with the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott) that his second point of order is well taken.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

The SPEAKER declared the "noes" appeared to have it.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I call for a division. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this is an "anti-ambulance chaser bill." This is a bill that makes it illegal for an attorney to do what if he does do, and it is proven that he does it and he is taken before any reputable bar association, will disbar him from practicing his profession in this State. That is what this bill is.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I make the point of order that the gentleman's remarks are out of order; that the vote has been cast upon the third reading of the bill, negatively.

The SPEAKER. There is nothing in order but the decision of the Speaker, which is that the "noes" have it.

Mr. HESS. I appeal from that ruling, Mr. Speaker, and renew my request for a division on that decision.

A division having been taken, the Chair declared that less than a majority of a quorum having voted in the affirmative, the question was decided in the negative, and the bill falls on third reading.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. McKIM. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1502, file folio 4793, on page 28 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. McKIM,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1562, entitled

An Act authorizing boroughs and townships to establish separate grades for sidewalks and cartways or roadways

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, this bill is for the purpose of allowing municipalities to establish different grades for sidewalks than those established for the cartway. If this bill becomes a law, any municipality that sees fit can have the sidewalks elevated above the cartway or put below the cartway and the property owner, who is assessed for the cost of the improvement of the cartway, will be placed in a position where he does not have proper access to it. I think if any man is assessed for the improvement of the cartway, he is entitled to have his sidewalk at the grade of the cartway, and I can see no good reason why this bill should be passed. If the borough does not want to leave the grade at the natural grade, they can still go ahead and improve the cartway. I think every property owner all along a borough street or a city street or a country highway is entitled to have his grade of the sidewalk at the same grade as the cartway. I ask that you vote this bill down.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Baldrige).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Baldrige) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, isn't it true that in many instances where there is a deep cut and where it spoils the property that the property owner asks the municipality not to cut the sidewalk down but permit it to be near the natural grade.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I did not hear the interrogation.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, isn't it true that in many instances where there is a deep cut on the sidewalk to conform with the grade of the roadway that the property owner requests the municipality to permit the sidewalks to be at a higher grade rather than to cut it down and leave a high bank in front of his property? You havn't met with that instance?

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I have not.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, for the benefit of the House, I might say that I represent in Delaware County several municipalities and we have met with this objection on a number of times where property owners have come and asked the municipality not to grade their pavements or sidewalk. For instance, I have an occasion at the present time where there are some beautiful shade trees at a place where the sidewalk is. To cut that sidewalk down to conform with the roadway, the municipality would have to remove those trees. They were informed that the municipality had to grade according to the road bed, and they compelled them to cut them down. This permits a municipality to conform with the request of the property owners and therefore save the beauty of their property in many instances. I do not see anything wrong with the bill.

Mr. McKIM. Mr. Speaker, just a word in explanation of the bill. As the gentleman from Delaware has said if the property owner desires to have the sidewalk at a higher or lower elevation, he can make that request to council. There is nothing in the bill that makes it obligatory on council to fix two grades, one on the sidewalk and one on the cartway, but under certain circumstances, as you all know, it is advisable to do this. It is entirely within the discretion of council whether it shall be done. Council usually treats these matters with some common sense, and if the lowering of the sidewalk would cut off that property owner's access from the street, it is unreasonable to suppose that council would do this. It is merely a measure permitting council to establish two grades if they can better the appearance and accessibility of the property owner to the street and sidewalk.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreebaly to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1079, entitled

An Act relating to the sale of liquids not containing more than one-half of one percentum of alcohol

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne (Mr. Powell) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I will.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I wish to know what the liquid is that is intended to be relieved from the license law, or what license is supposed to be taken away from this bill.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House: As I understand the Brooks High License Law, it takes in the words brewed and malt liquor. The beer upon the market to-day, which is universally near-beer, contains less than one-half of one per cent alcohol, but it is a brewed malt, and according to the ruling of our courts on the Brooks Law, it can only be sold under a revenue license. The purpose of this bill is to relieve the people who are going to make near-beer from acquiring a revenue license to sell it and to allow them to sell it under a mercantile license. It is absolutely a drink that contains no alcohol. It is labeled as containing less than one-half of one per cent alcohol.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman further.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, then it is the intention of this bill to allow an alcoholic drink to be sold without a license?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, it is not an alcoholic drink.

Mr. BOLARD. The bill provides that it may contain one-half of one per cent., does it not?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, anything less than one-half of one per cent.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, less than one-half of one per cent?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, less than one-half of one per cent.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, it might contain forty-nine one hundredths?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, it is put up in small bottles which are seen on the market, and the label specifies that it contains less than one-half of one per cent.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, then if it contains forty-nine one hundredths per cent. it could be sold under this bill as a non-alcoholic drink?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I presume it would.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr .Speaker and gentlemen of the House: I think this is simply a subterfuge, which is intended to do away with that splendid law, as the gentleman from Cambria told you, which controls and regulates the liquor business. Under this bill, it it should be enacted, we can sell spirituous liquors without any license. The sponsor admitted that it might contain forty-nine one hundredths of one per cent and be spirituous liquor, and children all over this State might get it without any license or conditions. I think this is a bad bill at this time and should not go through.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne (Mr. Powell.)

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne (Mr. Powell) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I will.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if it is not a fact that this bill repeals in part the Brooks High License Law.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, it does.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, and is it not a fact that any person who might desire to sell vinous, spirituous, malt or brewed liquors having one-half of one per cent alcohol could do so?

MR. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, less than one-half of one per cent.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, does not the bill read, "which does not contain more than one-half of one per centum of alcohol?"

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, well the gentleman can have it that way.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that it would relieve every person who desired to sell from the necessity of procuring a license and giving bond and complying with the restrictive provisions of the Brooks High License Law?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I do not think so.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman further, if it would not permit the sale of liquors having one-half of one per cent. alcohol to minors or children or any other person?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, it would.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman. Just one word, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. As long as we have the sale of liquor containing alcohol, do not let us release one particle of the Brooks High License Law and the necessary restrictions that are placed around the sale of it as a part of that law. Let us keep the Brooks High License Law just so long as liquors are sold.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, who is going to determine about the one-half of one per cent. alcohol administered to a patient at a hotel or restaurant? I refer it to the sponsor of the bill. I ask, Mr. Speaker, to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne (Mr. Powell) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I will.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman kindly answer my question, who is to determine about the one-half of one per cent. of the dose administered to a patient at a hotel?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I do not know whether I am an expert or not, but personally I think I would rather leave it to someone else.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, if he dies, who pays the bill?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, what about the undertaker?

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, he only collects the bill if the lawyer can get it for him. Mr. Speaker, what is in the Brooks High License Law about one-half of one per cent.?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, absolutely nothing.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, and yet the gentleman from Luzerne (Mr. Powell) says the bill is subject to the Brooks High License Law.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I never said anything of the kind.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, then this does not apply to the Brooks High License Law of Pennsylvania?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I would rather the gentleman would address the House, and when he is through I will interrogate.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I have asked the gentleman whether he intends his bill to replace the Brooks High License Law.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I have already answered that.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill further.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman, do you mean that your bill, before the House now, shall take the place of the Brooks High License Law?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, no.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Where do you stand?

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: Not being learned in the law, there may be some remarks that I might make that will be construed by some one to apply to a legal term on the Brooks High License Law. I have always been led to believe and I have always thought that the Brooks High License Liquor Law covered the term "brewed and malt liquors." Near beer is a brewed malt, therefore, my contention is that no one even to-day can sell near beer without first obtaining a license. According to the Brooks High License Law, that is required. The purpose of this bill is this: Any man who sells soft drinks has a right to distribute their sale and sell near beer. It is a brewed malt which has less than one-half of one per cent. alcohol and is so labeled. I think I have explained the best I know how, the purpose of this bill, but if there is some attorney here who can explain the Brooks High License Law, I would be obliged.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, the Brooks High License Law is now in full force and effect; there is no State law to take its place; there is no federal law to take its place, and so far as these unhatched chickens are concerned, with the one-half of one percent., that is only presuming something. We are now up against a federal law, and there is no federal law passed on the subject, and there is no law passed to defeat the Brooks High License Law, and consequently it is there and will stand there until it has been repealed by a statute of this Legislative body. Any man who talks about one-half of one per cent. does not know the value of his coffee. Mr. Speaker, I only regret that I do not recall the formula that my mother used to use in the spring and in the fall of every year to purify the systems of her sons and her daughters; purify their blood by the use of cherry wine sweet honey and other ingredients, and I venture to say to you and to the other gentlemen that inside of five days she would make for him a combination that would give health and purify the blood that would knock this dead.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: The Constitution of Pennsylvania, article 9, section 1, provides what property may be exempted from taxation. The Legislature put this in operation by the act of May 14, 1874, and this act has been re-enacted as amended by the acts of May 29, 1901, March 24, 1909, and June 13, 1911.

The purpose of this new act is not to change the law in any respect, but to clear up ambiguities and make certain what acts are in force and what are not.

The act of March 24, 1909, re-enacted and amended the act of 1874, but leaves out the proviso inserted by the act of 1901.

The act of June 13, 1911, re-enacted the act of 1874 as amended by the act of 1901, but leaves out the proviso inserted by the act of 1909. But this act of 1911 is held to be unconstitutional for three reasons. Williamson's Free School's App., 22 D. R. 824.

Moreover the Superior Court has held the act of May 29, 1901, unconstitutional for reasons set forth in Mercersburg College vs. Borough, 53 Pa. Super Ct. 398.

The only amendment introduced by this act of 1901 was to the effect that a claimant of exemption must hold either the legal or equitable title to the land. The purpose of this was to prevent property owners from leaving churches or other exempt institutions use thir lands until they can sell them and thus escape taxation. It is desired by our Board of Revision and they do not care to have it in its present unconstitutional form. There is nothing in this proviso, which is the last in our proposed act, which in any way militates against the Catholic Church. True they put their titles in the Archbishop, but it is only as an ecclesiastical corporation sole, with the equitable title in the individual congregations, so that the proviso does not militate against them at all.

The proviso inserted in our exemption law by the act of 1909 is reinserted, though it was left out by the act of June 13, 1911.

The new provisos inserted by the act of June 13, 1911, are omitted. First, this act of 1911 is held to be unconstitutional for three reasons. Williamson's School Appeal, 22 D. R. 824.

Second, the act of 1911, if it does anything enlarges exemption, instead of decreasing it. Its title says the purpose of the act is to lessen exemption, but an examination of its new proviso shows that if it does anything it enlarges exemption. Under the law ground "necessary" for the occupancy and enjoyment of a church or other exempt institution was only exempt, the word necessary being interpreted to mean reasonably necessary. Under the proviso of 1911 the word necessary is broadened to include what is convenient for the use and occupancy. A convenient use is broader than a reasonably necessary use and it is submitted is going too far in exempting from taxation.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 928, as follows:

An Act to provide for the abolition of railroad grade crossings and prescribing the procedure

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the directors of every company which operates a railroad in this State shall within one year after this act takes effect and within the same period yearly thereafter remove or apply for the removal of at least one grade crossing for every forty miles of road operated by it in this State which crossings so to be removed shall be those which in the opinion of said directors are among the most dangerous upon the lines operated by it and if the directors of any railroad company fail so to do the Public Service Commission shall if in its opinion the financial condition of the company will warrant order such crossing or crossings removed as in its opinion said directors should have applied for the removal of under the above provisions and the Public Service Commission in so doing shall proceed in all respects as if the said directors had voluntarily applied therefor All railroad crossings removed abolished or abandoned under the authority and direction of the Public Service Commission shall be credited on account of the requirements of this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WEST. Mr. Speaker, I request that the members of the House keep order while my friend from Lehigh (Mr. Rinn) addresses the House.

Mr. RINN. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been so very much amended that in order that the members can vote intelligently, I will read you the bill, as follows:

"The directors of every company which operates a railroad in this State shall within one year after this act takes effect and within the same period yearly thereafter remove or apply for the removal of at least one grade crossing for every forty miles of road operated by it in this State which crossings so to be removed shall be those which in the opinion of said directors are among the most dangerous upon the lines operated by it and if the directors of any railroad company fail so to do the Public Service Commission shall if in its opinion the financial condition of the company will warrant order such crossing or crossings removed as in its opinion said directors should have applied for the removal of under the above provisions and the Public Service Commission in so doing shall proceed in all respects as if the said directors had voluntarily applied therefor.'

Now, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, this bill is not drastic. It gives the railroad companies a very liberal amount of time to eliminate their death traps. If you believe that the killing of innocent people should continue, then vote against the bill. However, if you believe the highways of this State should be made safe for the people, then vote in favor of the measure.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: The most serious objection that I have to this measure is that the sponsor of the bill has been so lenient in his measure as to allow the railroad companies to take one year's time to remove one single grade crossing, and to thereafter give them only one single minor responsibility of removing one grade crossing in every forty miles. My impression is that they should remove each and every grade crossing mentioned in this bill. And, Mr. Speaker, I further notice that he gives them the leniency of relying upon the Public Service Commission that they may exercise their judgment, when they see fit, and when they please, notwithstanding the fact, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, that they do not know how many grade crossings there are in your community ;and mind you, it grants them the privilege of walking over the highways and byways, that they never will do, to see whether there are dangerous grade crossings in your community. I feel, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, to say the least, that this is one of the most lenient pieces of legislation that I ever read within the halls of this Congress, if you please. I believe that we ought to give this serious consideration in passing the measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1486, entitled

An Act making it lawful for the court of common pleas of the several counties to grant decrees for the annulment of marriages in certain cases

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Page 1, line 5, amend by striking out the words "and consummated."

Page 1, line 11, amend by striking out the words "between the date of such."

Page 1, line 12, amend by striking out the words "marriage and the application for annulment thereof."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. This being merely a strikeout, the House can proceed with the consideration of the bill.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Sowers) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I think we have a law in the State of Pennsylvania pertaining to marriage and divorce that covers the entire proposition and for this reason I interrogate the sponsor of this bill. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the sponsor to kindly state wherein the present law governing and controlling marriages and divorces is benefited by this bill?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, this is not a matter of divorce, it is a matter of annulment. The bill provides that in the case of minors who marry without the consent of the parents and that marriage is not consumated by sexual relations, that it can be annulled. It is for cases of people who are not living together as man and wife. A condition exists in Pennsylvania today where a person can obtain an annulment of a marriage under the Catholic law and still not be able to obtain an annulment under the laws of Pennsylvania.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if he would not consider it special legislation to legislate by reason of, or through this bill on the question of what is considered the consummation of a marriage?

Mr. SOWERS. Not at all.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Do you not know as a matter of fact that the marriage is not consummated in the church you refer to in the language you refer to in your bill.

Mr. SOWERS. I think the cannon law provides that unless the marriage is consummated—

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. I did not ask about canon law, I asked about the church.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I think the law in that church provides that the marriage is not consummated unless completed by sexual relations.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, do you mean to change the law of that church by this bill?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, no, to harmonize with it.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, then if that church provides that in the absence of a consummation, as indicated by your bill, why do you want this legislation?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the reason for this legislation is this: Our present law provides for an annulment of marriage only in case of fraud, duress, or something of that kind. There is no law in Pennsylvania providing for annulment of marriage that has been ill-advisedly or hurriedly made by children, who never expect to live together and never will live together.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman kindly inform this House what kind of people he has reference to in this bill?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, runaway marriages.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I maintain that there is but one class of people, or possibly two, that would come under the language of this bill, and they should be either idiots or imbeciles; and under the present State law they cannot perform a contract of marriage. Why, the very language of the bill itself, the very language of the bill—and I am not going to quote it or read it to you—would indicate that they are imbeciles or idiots. Six months' time! And who is going to keep trace of them and follow the record and make a record of their action for six months' time? There is none other, there are none other, there can be none other than idiots or imbeciles, and they cannot perform a contract of marriage. But now since we have a respectable, decent, legal proceeding to control this marriage subject and divorce, I ask you in all decency, why place this upon the statutes of Pennsylvania and call it a law? Out of decency and respect to the word "marriage," I want to say to you gentlemen of this House that you cannot afford to place such language upon the statute books of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and call it the law of Pennsylvania. By God, I cannot conceive for a moment that any man or woman upon the face of the earth would give their consent to come within this language here. You may consider it a joke and a laughing matter. It is not. When you come to talk about the contract of marriage it is the most serious contract God has permitted; and are you going to make so serious a contract as this laughing-stock in the State of Pennsylvania?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, after listening to my friend who has talked about everything except the bill, I think I better say something about it. This bill provides a remedy for the ill-advised marriage of children. If two children living in Philadelphia go to Elkton and get married and come back and immediately return to their home and their parents discover it and the families are hostile and the children do not live together, there is no law in Pennsylvania providing a relief for these two parties. There is only one thing that can happen. The man will find some other woman and the woman will find some other man.

Marriage in Pennsylvania is a status. The State is interested in marriage, is interested in a real marriage, not a fake marriage, not a marriage in name only. The State is interested in marriage that will bring forth children and increase the population and do something for the State. Such marriages as that bring only crime and vice. A remedy for that is offered by this bill.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, all that is necessary is for the gentleman to allege desertion and non-support. I would like to know if the sponsor of this bill, if you please, intended a diagnosis. If you please, a six months' period! Before a court of justice, and before a jury, if you please, he can see what kind of a dilemma he has put himself into, and what ridicule it would be to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Whereas The Philadelphia Commercial Museaum performs valuable service in affording free general instruction concerning the productions and commerce of the whole world by maintaining permanent exhibits of the various countries and by the free distribution to the schools throughout the State of geographical collections and lectures illustrating the commerce and industries of the world and

Whereas In the Board of Trustees of the Philadelphia Museums a public body organized under the laws of this Commonwealth which controls and operates the said Museum this Commonwealth is suitably represented through the ex-officio membership of the Governor the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Commission of Forestry and

Whereas The schools throughout the State derive material benefit from the service of the Commercial Museum and a large demand exists ior the extension and amplification thereof for which it is expedient to provide in the gathering and preparation of materials and exhibits and in the improvement of public buildings necessary therefor and belonging to the said Board of Trustees therefore

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1420, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to Morgan O Morgan of Carbon county for salary for service as mine inspector for Carbon county during the year one thousand nine hundred and six

Whereas By an act approved the eighth day of June one thousand nine hundred one (Pamphlet Laws five hundred thirty-five) entitled "An Act amending article two of an act entitled 'An Act to provide for the health and safety of persons employed in and about the anthracite coal mines of Pennsylvania and for the protection and preservation of property connected therewith' approved the second day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one" Carbon county was made a separate anthracite coal mine inspection district and

Whereas In one thousand nine hundred five the Department of Mines certified to the commissioners of Carbon county that at the fall election of that year one person was to be elected as mine inspector for the Carbon county district for a term to commence on the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred six and

Whereas One Morgan O Morgan was an aspirant for the office of mine inspector in Carbon county said Morgan having passed the required examination before the Lackawanna county examining board and secured said board's certificate of qualification which certificate was filed in the office of the commissioners of Carbon county and

Whereas At the November election in one thousand nine hundred and five said Morgan O Morgan was elected as mine inspector of Carbon county and commenced the performance of his duties as inspector of mines on the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred six and from then on until the end of November in that year was diligent and active in the performance of the duties of said office and

Whereas The Department of Mines refused to recognize said Morgan O Morgan as mine inspector by reason of his having failed to secure a certificate of qualification from the Luzerne County Examining Board instead of the Lackawanna County Board and

Whereas By reason of a Supreme Court decision the Department of Mines has since then altered its position and now recoznizes a certificate of qualification issued by any one of the anthracite examining boards as good in any part of the anthracite coal fields and

Whereas Because of the attitude of the Department of Mines the Auditor General refused to issue his warrants for salary to said Morgan O Morgan which salary amounted to the sum of two thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars and

Whereas Neither said sum of two thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars nor any part thereof has ever been received by said Morgan O Morgan therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of two thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars ($2,750) is hereby specifically appropriated to Morgan O Morgan in full for salary due by the Commonwealth for acting as mine inspector for Carbon county during eleven months of the year one thousand nine hundred six

Section 2 The moneys hereby appropriated shall be paid by the State Treasurer upon warrant of the Auditor General in the usual manner

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 502, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation for the purpose of reimbursing counties for moneys advanced to incorporated county agricultural associations and for reimbursing incorporated county agricultural associations for premiums paid on exhibits

Whereas By the act approved the eighteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand and thirty-five) entitled "An Act for the encouragement of agriculture and the holding of agricultural exhibitions providing State aid for certain agricultural associations and regulating the payment thereof" it is provided that in counties having one incorporated county agricultural association conforming to the requirements of the act such association shall be entitled to receive from the Commonwealth an annual sum not exceeding two thousand dollars equal to the amount paid by such association as premiums for exhibits at its annual exhibition exclusive of premiums paid on trials of speed and in all counties where there is more than one such association the said association shall be entitled to receive from the Commonwealth a sum not exceeding in the aggregate four thousand dollars to be apportioned by the county commissioners among such associations according to the amount of premiums paid for exhibits by such associations exclusive of premiums for trials of speed and

Whereas By section six of said act it is provided that payments to such incorporated county agricultural association shall be made by the county commissioners on or before the fifteenth day of December in the year in which the exhibition is held and upon the filing with the Auditor General of the Commonwealth on or before December fifteenth of each year of the certificate of the county treasurer of the respective counties showing the amount of money paid and to whom the Auditor General shall issue his warrant for the amount so paid directing the State Treasurer to pay into the treasury of the said countics the amount so paid and

Whereas In the case of "Lycoming County Fair Association versus Lycoming County" reported in Volume forty-four Pennsylvania Circuit Court page two hundred and eighty it was held that this act of one thousand nine hundred fifteen was unconstitutional because there was not appropriated by the General Assembly of the session of one thousand nine hundred and fifteen money sufficient to reimburse the several countis for the money advanced to associations entitled to receive the benefits of said act and that therefore the county might become liable for a part of said charge and that there was no notice in the title of the said act that such a charge might be imposed upon the county and

Whereas Subsequent to the decision of the court in the above stated case the Auditor General and the State Treasurer ceased payment of said money to the several counties and

Whereas The sum appropriated by the Act of July twenty-five one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand one hundred and ninety-five) entitled "An Act for the encouragement of agriculture and the holding of agricultural exhibitions providing State aid for certain agricultural associations and regulating the payment thereof" was insufficient to reimburse all the agricultural associations in accordance with the provisions of said act and

Whereas The said associations relying upon the good faith of the Commonwealth in making said appropriations are entitled to be reimbursed for the premiums paid for the exhibits and said money is really due to said associations therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of sixty-three thousand and sixteen dollars and eighty-eight cents ($63,016.88) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to reimburse the several counties for moneys advanced to agricultural associations and for the purpose of reimbursing also county agricultural associations for the years one thousand nine hundred and fifteen one thousand nine hundred and sixteen and one thousand nine hundred and eighteen for premiums paid for exhibits at their annual exhibitions exclusive of premium paid on trials of speed in accordance with the provisions of said acts

Section 2 The Auditor General is hereby directed to draw his warrant upon the State Treasurer for the purpose of reimbursing the several counties which in accordance with the provisions of said acts have paid any moneys to any such incorporated county agricultural association during the years one thousand nine hundred fifteen and one thousand nine hundred sixteen and have filed a certificate thereof with the Auditor General showing the amount paid and to whom Upon the filing with the Auditor General of any claims by any such incorporated county agricultural associations under oath showing the amount paid for premiums on exhibits during the years one thousand nine hundred fifteen one thousand nine hundred sixteen and one thousand nine hundred eighteen and stating further that such association has not been reimbursed by the county or by the Commonwealth as provided by said acts the Auditor General is directed to draw his warrant on the State Treasurer in favor of such incorporated county agricultural associations for the amount so paid not exceeding in any case however the amount provided for by law

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1612, as follows:

Whereas The Armory Building of the Third Regiment Infantry National Guard of Pennsylvania now part of the One Hundred and Tenth Infanry of the United States is subject to a mortgage of sixty-one thousand dollars and that the State of Pennsylvania has failed to aid in the upkeep of said Armory for a period of two years or of its care

And whereas It is the desire of the trustees to protect the said property for the interest of said regiment and of said State

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) be appropriated to the legal trustees of the said Third Regiment Infantry National Guard of Pennsylvania to be applied to the payment of said mortgage or such interest repairs care of building as may accrue during the year of one thousand nine hundred and nineteen

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I am not in favor of this bill for a memorial bridge in Harrisburg, although I expect to vote for it, but I would like to have about two minutes to say something else on this bill, at the risk of getting myself disliked by the Appropriation Committee. I would like to call attention to two appropriation bills in which I am interested, which I think have not received consideration, a bill introduced by my colleague, the Senator from Chester, asking for an appropriation of $7,500. The friends of this bill have been trying for six years to get an appropriation and they have been turned down. The second bill is for a housing commission, for $5,000, which I introduced. It is a very difficult subject. I simply wish to call your attention to the fact that the bills have been turned down for an appropriation of $12,500, whereas we are appropriating here a half millon dollars for a bridge.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I desire to state to the Senate and the gentleman from Philadelphia, that the Appropriation Committee has no apology to make for any of its actions. On all bills reported out, commission or otherwise, the same have been taken up to a certain extent with the Governor of the Commonwealth, and if these bills were not reported out, there was a very good reason for not being reported out, without the Senator from Philadelphia casting any insinuations.

The SPEAKER (Robert S. Spangler) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, grant that it may be prophetic of a great truth that, when our State is called the Keystone State, it may stand for all that sign marks. But, in order that it be such, it must be fitly framed and rightly joined together. Then only at the crowning point of the arch will it have its dignity and its place. Therefore we pray Thee that Thou wilt clean and purify all that is unclean, all that is untrue, all that is short-sighted in our system, and in our thought, and in our method, that we may indeed assume that crowning point, and that we may indeed be for ourselves a true keystone that shall rightly hold the arch together. But whether we be such or not, grant that we may never become a millstone and grind down, and drag down, and destroy. Bless then this State, that it may not be merely a term of boastfulness, but that it may indeed express a great truth, and may that arch be built and firmly held together throughout the coming generations. Amen.

The first bill is House Bill No. 379, at the top of page 32 of yesterday's calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 379, entitled

An Act to amend sections two hundred and two, two hundred and fourteen, two hundred and fifteen, two hundred and sixteen and three hundred and one of an act approved the eighteenth day of May, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven, entitled "An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting the same and repealing all laws general, special or local or any parts thereof, that are, or may be inconsistent therewith," so far as to provide for the number election and organization of boards of school directors in school districts of the first class, and to provide for the expiration of the terms of office of existing boards of school directors in said school districts.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. CAMPBELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I call up House Bill No. 1635 (Senate Bill No. 322), on page 33 of yesterday's calendar, which bill is on third reading today.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1635 (Senate Bill No. 322), entitled

An Act to provide for a purchasing agent in counties having a population of one million five hundred thousand or over

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for amendment.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 669, entitled

An Act to amend section two hundred and twelve of an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) entitled "An Act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Luzerne County (Mr. Murphy).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne (Mr. Murphy) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MURPHY. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Alexander) will proceed.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, as I understand this bill, it provides that commissioners in the townships of the first class shall receive an annual salary of six hundred dollars?

Mr. MURPHY. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, the present salary is what?

Mr. MURPHY. Mr. Speaker, five dollars for each meeting.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, or five dollars per month?

Mr. MURPHY. Mr. Speaker, according to the number of meetings.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, that is sixty dollars per year?

Mr. MURPHY. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman whether it is his intention to raise the salary of the Commissioners of Townships of the first class to six hundred dollars per year?

Mr. MURPHY. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: I just want to call you attention to the provisions of this bill. It provides for the salaries of commissioners of townships of the first class. You know how very hard it is for the commissioners in those townships to raise enough money to take care of their public roads, to take care of their lights and to take care of those things which are necessary for the public. We have in Delaware County as many townships of the first class as any other county in the State has. A great majority of the commissioners in these townships say that they believe that this salary is too large, that the townships, many of them, cannot pay it. I just want to call your attention to that so that you will see what it means. In other words, the commissioners of townships of the first class are to get more money for their salary than any of the councilmen in any of your boroughs.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1655 (Senate Bill No. 535), entitled

A supplement to an act entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations" approved the twenty-ninth day of April Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four providing for the incorporation and regulation of telephone companies defining the rights powers and privileges of such corporations authorizing and regulating the purchase acquisition and leasing the whole or any part of the properties systems capital stock and securities of other corporations associations and persons engaged in the telephone business authorizing existing telegraph corporations to accept the provisions of this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire an explanation of this bill. If there is any person present in the House that can give it to us, I will appreciate it.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, this bill comes before us as the result of a decision of the Supreme Court of this State, handed down on the tenth of February of this year. In the case of the Cochranton Telephone Co. v. Petroleum Telephone Co. 263 Pa., 506, the Advance Reports of May 30th. In that case an effort was made to merge two telephone companies through the approval of the Public Service Commission. The matter was taken up to the Supreme Court, and the question was raised there that under Article XVI, Section 12 of our Constitution, "no telegraph company shall consolidate with, or hold a controlling interest in the stock or bonds of any other telegraph company owning a competing line, or acquire, by purchase or otherwise, any other competing line of telegraph," and the Supreme Court held that under the decisions in our State, a telephone company and a telegraph company were one and the same thing. Mr. Justice von Moschzisker, who wrote the opinion, referred to a case in the United States Supreme Court of Richmond vs. Southern Telephone Co., 174 U. S., 761, wherein it was held that telephone and telegraph companies were different entities, but in this State we are bound by prior opinions, and a telephone and a telegraph company is one and the same thing. The Supreme Court intimates that this is an ancient usage, and in order to clarify the corporation law on that question, this act or bill was introduced. It is to be noted in this bill that before any merger may take place between competing telephone companies there must be a certificate of public convenience issued by the Public Service Commission, and then the corporations have to perform those requirements of the act with reference to the merger.

I find on an examination of the facts in cases of this kind that there is, in the first place, a need for a distinction between telephone and telegraph companies. We look on the telephone company as one thing and we look on the telegraph company as another thing; whereas, to the lay mind they are different corporations, yet, under our law they are one and the same in purpose. Now, objections might be raised to the fact that a big company might swallow up a small company. That cannot occur for two reasons. In the first place the big companies have subsidiary corporations operating throughout this State. I know and have heard of two counties, one in the northwestern part of the State—for the case cited came from Oil City—and another in the eastern part of the State where the so-called big company, like the Bell Telephone Co., is operating lines that do not pay. Over in Northampton County I am informed that an independent telephone company operates paying lines and the Bell Telephone Company does not operate paying lines. Now then in a case like that, instead of the stockholders of the Bell Telephone Company losing their money, under this act, if it passes, there may be a merger and they would receive the real par value of their stock, because if the independent company is doing a better business than the Bell Company, why should the Bell stockholders be permitted to lose? In the western part of the State there are independent companies in the hands of receivers, and these companies, if permitted to merge with the Bell Company, would put their stockholders in the position where they would not lose. In the next place, there should be no opposition to the bill, because before any telephone company can merge with another company, they must receive from the Public Service Commission the word saying that this merger is for the convenience of the public. In short, gentlemen, as I view this bill, it will help us to get good service in these sections of the State where today the service is poor, and I feel sure you are perfectly willing to help your constituents to get good service and you are anxious to see that they do not lose their money when it is invested in telephone stock, and this bill permits them to be saved in the second point and in the first point we get better service.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, I desire to state that where there is competition you have better service. There is an attempt here to consolidate the entire telephone systems of the various counties into one company, in other words, creating a monopoly. The tendency of today of the average man and of the public is to frown upon monopoly. We have an interest here in voting upon this bill, first, to protect the poor man, and second, to take care of the public. I will say that if this act passes there is no telling where the end may be, and what rates the poor man will have to pay. Monopoly will always create high prices, and it is the poor man that pays for it. I am here to-day to argue against this bill and say to you that the poor man and the average subscriber should be protected. I sincerely ask you to vote against this bill.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I can concur in all that the gentleman from Allegheny has said with reference to competition being the life of trade, and therefore bringing about better service; that monopoly ought to be frowned upon and the poor protected. I own no stock in any telephone company nor have I any interest in any, but I think that this bill looks toward the betterment of conditions in this State. In order that the proposition of the gentleman from Allegheny shall stand, he has to concede in the first place that the Public Service Commission would have to be controlled by the corporation representing or called the telephone company. I do not think he wants to say, by any manner of means, that the Public Service Commission can be controlled by any corporation. Now then if the Public Service Commission cannot be controlled by a corporation, and cannot be looked upon as crooked and as a bunch of grafters, no public service company could have any public service convenience certificate issued. Where those two lines were serving the public and the two lines were running say from Harrisburg to Steelton, the one an old line like the Bell, and the other a younger and an independent line, and the Bell line was givng bad service and the independent line was giving good service, why should not the subscribers on contract to the poorer line be permitted to go into the system, a consolidated system that would give everybody good service; and when the Public Service Commission finds that that condition exists, of bad service and of good service, why should not the Public Service Commission say that the good of the public requires that the consolidation shall take place so that all of its subscribers to the contracts shall receive good service? Now, gentlemen, the second question is the question of cost. The cost of a call and the cost of a contract under the law of this State cannot be raised without the consent of the Public Service Commission, and we all know how careful the Public Service Commission has been before it permits any corporation to increase its rates. These rates that we pay to-day to the telephone companies are not the rates which have been provided for by our Public Service Commission. They are the rates which have been put upon us by that fellow Burleson, who holds a job in the Cabinet of the President of the United States. He is the fellow that raised the rates. You know what happened in our own State. Our Attorney General went into the courts of this county and secured and injunction against the raising of these rates. The case was appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, and the Supreme Court ruled out the case from this State, and said that Burleson had the right to fix the telephone and telegraph rates because it was a war measure, and in war the Government has the right to do what it pleases with the public utilities. So I think the gentleman has no reason to raise the point of the increase in rates. When these public service companies go back to the ownership of the private indivdual who holds stock in them, even before these companies dare raise the rates they must receive a certificate of public convenience on that rate. I feel, gentlemen, if this bill goes through that those of us who have received poor telephone service will receive better service, and we need have no fear of a monopoly because the independent systems in this State have done too much good and are too valuable to be gobbled up by the Bell Telephone Company or any other telephone company.

Mr. WILLERT. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, I can concur in every word that the gentleman from Philadelphia has said. Up in northwestern Pennsylvania we have the independent company as well the Bell Company, and in our section the independent telephone company has about five times as many 'phones as the Bell Company. Our constitutents in the northwestern part of Pennsylvania want this bill because by having this piece of legislation we are able to get rid of one telephone, and it would be real economy to us instead of a monopoly to the Bell Company. I hope you gentlemen will vote for this bill.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this is a supplement to the Act of April 29, 1874, as explained. There are at this time two hundred and fifty independent telephone companies in the State of Pennsylvania. I presume their distribution is so wide that almost every member of this House knows just what competition between the one system, the Bell, and the independent system is. We know that many of those independent systems are bordering close on financial ruin. The average locality is limited as to the amount of service rendered or business that can be gotten. In most of the various sections of this State, at the present time, in order that a business man may have proper telephone connection with his patrons, it is essential that he is a subscriber to both of these telephone systems, and in fact I do not doubt that many of us, even in our residences are compelled to subscribe to the several telephone companies in order to have telephone connection with our patrons and friends. This bill simply makes it possible for these companies to merge. There is nothing mandatory in it and no company is compelled to sell out. First, one or the other corporation must feel that it is to its interest to make a sale and, feeling that way, in order to make the sale and consolidate the two systems in that community, which would help to make for better and universal service, it must present a petition to the Public Service Commission, which will regulate not only the rates but whether or not it ought to be done. I believe this is a bill we ought to vote for and I trust the members of the House will do so.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. James A. Walker), I desire to state that I hope the House has not taken from my remarks, or that any intimation might be taken, that I would infer that the corporations might have some influence over the Public Service Commission. I would say that every man on that Commission is above reproach, and I am positive that no corporation could reach any man on that Commission. The Commission is bound by the figures furnished by the public utility or corporation which comes to it and asks for certain permission to do certain things; and the Public Service Commission is bound by those figures. But we know from the history of corporations in the past that figures have been juggled with and the people have been fooled and misled, and I believe that if this bill is passed now figures would be juggled.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. Speaker, I do not rise to discuss the legal phase of the question. There is, however, one phase of the bill which to my mind is unfair, and that is the point to which I wish to call your attention. Under the provisions of this bill, a telephone company in exercising its corporate rights in cities and villages is required to get permission from the council of the borough or city in which it is operating, and that borough or city is permitted to enjoin reasonable restrictions upon the company with reference to the erection of its poles, the laying of its conduits, etc. But as soon as the company emerged from the borough or city to the rural districts the restraint is removed. There is no restriction, and they are not directed to see the supervisors of the respective townships in order that they may enjoin on the company reasonable restrictions as to where it shall put its poles or where it shall lay its conduits, etc. It is for this practice alone that I call your attention. It may not seem to you to be a serious one, but it is a serious one for the farmers in the rural districts, and one we ought to observe and protect.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Venango (Mr. Mallery), I wish to explain that this a supplement to another act, and that phase of the bill is not changed in any way. Under the original act telephone companies have the power of eminent domain, and can proceed to erect their poles and string their wires after they have filed bonds and given security for damages, and there is no change in that particular at all in this supplement.

Shall the main question now be put?

It was agreed to.

Shall the bill pass finally?

SENATE MESSAGE.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, June 18, 1919.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 814, entitled "An Act amending the third section of an act approved the twenty-third day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seven (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and six), entitled 'An Act to regulate and improve the civil service of the cities of the second class in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, making violations of its provisions to be misdemeanors, and providing penalties for violations thereof, providing for the method of making the annual appropriations to conduct the business of the Civil Service Commissioner,'" be returned to the Governor without amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1625.

Mr. HOLLINGSWORTH offered the following motion which was twice read:

Moved by Mr. HOLLINGSWORTH, seconded by Mr. GRAHAM, that the vote by which House Bill No. 1625, file folio 6587, was defeated on final passage be reconsidered.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the title of the bill.

The Clerk read the title as follows:

An Act to amend the act approved the eleventh day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and eighteen) entitled "An Act relating to dogs and the protection of livestock and poultry from damage by dogs providing for the licensing of dogs regulating the keeping of dogs and authorizing their destruction in certain cases providing for the protection of licensed dogs and for dogs temporarily imported for trial show and breeding purposes prescribing certain privileges for hunting dogs and dogs owned or used by the board of game commissioners providing for the assessment of damages done by dogs and payment thereof by the proper county to the owners of livestock and poultry and of damages to licensed dogs imposing powers and duties on certain state county city borough town and township officers and employes and on city councils of cities of the first and second class and providing penalties" providing for the issuing of licenses by the clerk of the court of quarter sessions instead of the county treasurer and fixing his fees

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "noes" appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, and the Chair declared the majority had voted in the affirmative, and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, this bill has for its purpose the collection of the dog tax license by the courts instead of the treasurer. This is done in view of the fact that the outgoing of license for the places used for the sale of liquors will reduce, materially, the Clerk of the Courts' fees; and while the Clerk of the Courts of quarter sessions is absolutely necessary as part of the machinery of the courts, I think those fees which are lost should be replaced by some other manner through which nobody will be hurt at all and they are allowed or given a chance to earn the fees which they are entitled to under the Act of Assembly. I ask you to support the measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO PLACE SENATE BILL NO. 554 ON THE CALENDAR.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I move that Senate Bill No. 554 (House Bill No. 1631) file folio 2505, entitled

An Act authorizing municipalities with the assent of the electors duly obtained at an election to use moneys borrowed or authorized to be borrowed for purposes which have proved impracticable or impossible or unnecessary for any other municipal purpose" be placed upon the calendar not withstanding the negative recommendation of the committee

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, this is a bill of great importance to the city of Philadelphia. It is a piece of legislation that reaches back to the session of 1909; it is legislation for the purpose of establishing rapid transit in Philadelphia. The opposition to this bill is without real reason or logic. It has opposition that is bred from the mere desire to punish the author and the friends of the author's bill even to the sacrifice of the taxpayers of the city of Philadelphia. Mr. Speaker, yesterday I arose in place and called upon the chairman of the Municipal Corporations Committee, of which committee I am a member, asking of him the present status of this bill, and the intentions of the committee. I was answered by a refusal to give information upon the status or the consideration of the bill upon the grounds that the chairman of that committee, the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander), cloaked himself behind the secrecy——

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of personal privilege.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call the House's attention to the fact that the deliberations of the committee are secret, although the gentleman, as a member, as notice was posted on the bulletin, had a right to be present.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order. The remarks of the gentleman are out of order.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The gentleman from Philadelphia will proceed.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I arose in place and called, in parliamentary courtesy, upon the chairman of the Municipal Corporations Committee for information, as a member of this House and as a member of his committee. My query was met by his refusal with the statement that he would not disclose the actions of his committee and the Chair, with no other position to take, sustained his refusal. Mr. Speaker, without notice to the members of that committee who were most vitally interested in the bill, with a secrecy that was cowardly, with a secrecy that was deceptive, with a secrecy that had no honest place in a legislative body, that committee met without notice to those of us in the city of Philadelphia who are friendly to this legislation; that committee that refused to give us notice as to the status of the bill and went to the extent of preventing us from having notice of the meeting of the committee, and the result was, that the committee, unintended by those of us who come from the city of Philadelphia to this legislative body, who represent the taxpayers of Philadelphia, had no right or means to express before that committee the purpose of this important piece of legislation. Mr. Speaker, the chairman of that committee can take the position of saying that we ought to have known of that meeting; he can take the position if he wants to, and if he feels that it justifies his dignity, that notice was given, but I say that he has never had a meeting of the committee heretofore, and the clerks of this desk did not notify the House that there was to be a meeting and he never did have a meeting of his committee on this bill, and that there was no public notice given to the members of that committee that they might meet and go into honest consultation. But, Mr. Speaker, I told the chairman of that committee that he gave us no notice, and I will tell the chairman of that committee, Mr. Speaker, why he met in secret and negatived that bill. It is this: When I stood on the floor and told him that unless he would consider this bill and give us the right to go before his committee, that I would bring the matter to the floor of this House within twenty-four hours, which meant that I had to have fifty-nine votes besides my own to place that bill, under the rules of this House, on the calendar and take it from his committee, and when he called his committee and in secrecy negatived the bill, then those of us that were friendly to this legislation were required with a majority of the members on the floor to bring the bill to the consideration of the House. Mr. Speaker, that bill has had no fair consideration; that bill has had no fair argument and the sponsors of the bill and the friends of the bill have had no means to inform the House as to its merits. Mr. Speaker, this is not a partisan piece of legislation; this is no legislation that should be cast aside as factional legislation; it is legislation that if it is killed here in this House will cost the city of Philadelphia hundreds of thousands of dollars in interest money; a bill that will cost the taxpayers of Philadelphia two years' more of delay in expensive matters. Mr. Speaker, all that we ask of this House is to place this bill on the calendar, notwithstanding the negative recommendation that this committee has stamped upon it, in order that we might fully argue before this House the merits of the bill.

Mr. Speaker, in the 1913 session, when you, Mr. Speaker, was a member upon this floor, there came from the city of Philadelphia one thousand and more men,—business men, professional men, working men, laboring men, men of worth, men of poverty, men of all degrees of citizenry of Philadelphia. They came to the House headed by a mayor who asked the Legislature of Pennsylvania to give rapid transit and new court facilities to them, and the House, Mr. Speaker, voted the great legislation that is now developing Philadelphia in a great traction center and in a great port. We voted as we thought then was right. The legislation was submitted to the people of Philadelphia, who voted a loan of sixty-three million five hundred thousand dollars for rapid transit in that city. The people of Philadelphia voted that loan. That loan was created; that loan was floated; that loan is being paid, and interest upon it, by the taxpayers of Philadelphia. But, Mr. Speaker, a great war came on; prices went up; labor was more expensive; expenditures had to be in greater amount. The work was stopped to a great degree. One great line, extending from the heart of the city on up to Frankford, a large suburban town, a city of itself, which had been clamoring for years for transit, had their elevated road almost established. We cannot, Mr. Speaker, go on to complete that road with the borrowing standing as it is, for this reason: When the loan went through, the loan of sixty-three million five hundred thousand dollars was allotted to the different lines. Twenty-five million dollars was allotted to Frankford. Different amounts, running to the amount of two million two hundred thousand dollars were allotted to the different other branches, some of which will not be established now, under the present conditions, for years. We have built under the City Hall, a large central station that is now almost completed, at an expenditure of three million three hundred thousand dollars. That station is now ready to be opened for the convenience of the people, but we have no line that comes yet to the station. The Frankford line is but partly developed. We have but enough money to carry on the Frankford work until January of next year. Now this legislation is a simple business-like proposition, and this is what it is, Mr. Speaker: It allows the people of Philadelphia to again vote as to whether the amount that had been voted for one line, which line will not be devloped for some years, can be converted over to the line that is coming to immediate completion. It is merely an Act of Assembly that allows the City of Philadelphia to do that which any business man would do. If a business man, Mr. Speaker, had placed aside a fund to carry out a project of two branches and he had divided his fund and he found that his one branch that he was bringing onto completion could not be completed with the amount that he had allotted to that, would he hesitate to go into the fund that was laying aside and finish the one branch rather than leave the two branches of his project lay id'e? Well, that is all the City of Philadelphia asks for. We ask in this bill that the director or the head of the transit facilities be allowed to go on with his great work. Now, Mr. Speaker, if mere narrow partisanship, if mere jealous greed, is going to stop this legislation, it means this: That for two years our transit facilities stand still. It means that for two years the station under City Hall stands idle, even to the extent of starting to bring the track to the station.

Mr. Speaker, the opposition to this bill is not honest opposition. The opposition to this bill is for the purpose of depriving the City of Philadelphia of transit rights because those who are today advocating this legislation do not bow the knee, do not kneel and bow the head to the arrogant boss who leaves his great office of United States Senator and drags his toga to the disgrace, to the mire and the mud of a mere lobbyist with a whip that would whip in line those who claim to be associated with him in his political power. Mr. Speaker, this legislation was started in 1909. This legislation then had the approval of that selfsame boss. This legislation was sent through this House with his sanction. He has given his stamp of approval to it until today, when he has the effrontery to flaunt his power in the face of the people of Philadelphia. He has the arrogance to pick their pockets because of his political selfishness. Mr. Speaker, those of us who asked for honest transit, those of us who asked for rapid transit, those of us who are here to save the taxpayers of Philadelphia the great loss that is being placed upon them today, vote for and advocate this present bill. Mr. Speaker, we are not alone in our advocacy of it. We are not here unsupported, and you men who come from the interior of the State, you men who come from the western part of the State, can vote against this bill and vote against this motion if you see your way clear to do it. You may oppose the people's power if you so desire; but, Mr. Speaker, let me say this: The power that has influenced many of you blindly, influenced me many a time blindly. I stood just as loyally by the side of that same power as any one of you; I served it with fidelity; I tasted the sting of its ingratitude! I never even heard a grunt of appreciation. Mr. Speaker, let me predict to the members of this House that when you go home to meet the raft of your people, when you go back to answer the question, you will find no support from the one who wields the whip; you will find no gratitude. You can lay at the side of the road, a wounded, dead soldier, and you will not even have the pleasure of having a kindly pat to heal your wounds; you will not even see a smile or look of sorrow; you will not even hear a grunt of kindliness.

But, Mr. Speaker, the press of Philadelphia supports this bill. The business men of Philadelphia support this legislation. I hold in my hands a paper antagonistic to the political forces dominating in power in the Republican party and I read you this piece of an editorial referring to this legislation:

"It has long been evident to those who have given close attention to the city's project for high-speed rapid transit that that project is impossible of fulfillment under existing conditions and that those conditions can only be changed by a reconsideration by the people of the terms of the transit loan. The city is committed to certain definite subway or elevated railway undertakings, to each of which is allotted a loan authorization; but in no case is the amount sufficient to complete the construction of the line. And there is not the slightest prospect of changes in construction costs which will alter this condition or bring the city within sight of a realization of its hope for relief from existing inadequate transportation facilities.

"To meet this situation and to open the way for the reconsideration of the transit program by the people a bill is pending in the Legislature against which there seems to be no legitimate ground of opposition. It merely grants to Philadelphia a right already given to other municipalities in the State to reconsider its own acts. It is understood that Governor Sproul recognizes the necessity for some such legislation and favors the passage of the Salus bill; but it lies inactive in the hands of a subcommittee of the House and is being held there for no apparent reason, or at least for none which can bear the light of publicity.

"No consideration of personal pride of authorship ought to be allowed to intervene to deny to Philadelphia the right to revise its program of transit development. The community can place confidence in the disinterestedness and sincerity of the engineering judgment expressed by Director Twining when he declares that the existing plans are impossible for execution with the resources available, and with his assurance that with certain alterations in the plans and in the loan allotments the same results aimed at in the original Taylor program can be reached at a far lower cost to the city. Under these circumstances, opposition to the Salus bill is unpatriotic and against the best interests of Philadelphia."

Mr. Speaker, unpatriotic! That might appeal to some of us members of the House, but I fear that it will never send its influence through the hide of the one whose small, narrow jealousy whips the opposition in line to this bill. Unpatriotic! Yes, that unpatriotic condition was so familiar in the beginning of the war when that same opposition, that one who brings his great office to disgrace when he comes here to the position in Harrisburg as a boss and a lobbyist. Unpatriotic, yet he was unpatriotic when he abandoned President Wilson who was fighting the world's fight; unpatriotic, when he was snarling at his heels, when he was attempting to tear down the great President of the United States because he was a Democrat; unpatriotic, yes, he is unpatriotic. During the great war loans, when the prize fighter worked in the streets to sell bonds and stood side by side with the banker, when the poor scrub woman worked along the streets—

The SPEAKER. The Chair would at this time direct that the gentleman from Philadelphia confine himself to the question under consideration.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I will confine myself to this bill. I was saying that when this great press calls upon this House to be patriotic; when it calls upon us and points out that our fight against the bill would be unpatriotic, and, Mr. Speaker, I am speaking of that which is relative to the question, when I say that the power that whips into line the opposition to the bill, there is where we want patriotism to exist, the patriotism that did not exist when the prize fighter stood in the street side by side with the banker, and when the scrub woman stood side by side with the millionaires selling bonds, we never even heard a peep from Penrose.

Mr. Speaker, this motion that we have here, this motion to put this bill up for consideration, can be voted down by us; it can be killed it can be stifled; it can be struck down, but let me say that from the highest, the Chair, to the lowest and the humblest of us, there will be no appreciation from the one we might think we serve. We are coming to the last days of the session. A great powerful committee killed this bill without consideration of it, and I challenge the chairman of the committee to rise in his place and analyze to this House the merits and the demerits of the bill that he so subserviently stabbed in the back. Mr. Speaker, let the men who go back to their districts, who go back to their first-class townships, who go back to their villages, who go back to their towns and cities, who believe in home rule, let me ask those men in fair play which is the greater, which is the more patriotic, which is the more manly—to serve the taxpayer, to serve the wage earner of Philadelphia or to serve the man in Philadelphia who has disgraced his great office and who has been repudiated by those same wage earners, those same tax payers that he would strip of their bit of wealth and of their votes in the City of Philadelphia? I ask the fair, honest consideration of the members of this House as to whether or not we have the right to have our bill placed on this calendar; whether you are going to aid and assist in the stiffling and smoothering and assassinating the legislation that was assassinated and stiffled and smoothered in the darkness—I was going to say of a Legislative Committee room, but I fear in the darkness of a hotel room.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House. When your humble servant who is now addressing you returns to Pittsburgh, his conscience will be just as clear as the conscience of the gentleman from Philadelphia who just preceded me. I am going to state that there was absolutely no secrecy about the convening of this committee. Yesterday, after adjournment, several of the members came and suggested that a meeting should be held. The speaker who just preceded me intimated that no notice was read from the desk. I then immediately posted the board announcing the time of the meeting. We then convened at 3:30, and after a discussion the bill was reported out with a negative recommendation. With reference to this bill, the chairman of this committee, which position I have the honor to hold, spoke to several members of the committee, and stated that the bill could not come out with an affirmative recommendation and inasmuch as this committee, as long as we have been in session in this House has yet to return a bill to the House with a negative recommendation, that it could not come out in that form. It has been the chairman's attitude and my privilege to go to the several members and intimate to them the opposition to the bill so that it would not be negatived and to allow the bill to rest in the committee under an indefinite postponement. That has been the attiture of the chairman of the Municipal Corporations Committee, and I have intimated to the members of this House in a number of instances that it was to the best interests of all concerned that this bill be postponed indefinitely. However, the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott) served notice on me yesterday that unless the bill was reported out he would take certain drastic action on it. As I said before, I called the committee for 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and the result was that the committee met and reported the bill with a negative recommendation. The chairman of this committee had given the bill earnest consideration and study, and if you will read the bill, as a great many have, you will see that there is a snake in the bill. Read it for yourselves. The citizens of Philadelphia—I have the interests of everyone, not only in Philadelphia, but in Erie, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Scranton and different places, and desire the entire State to be taken into consideration. I have as much interest in Philadelphia as I have in Pittsburgh. With reference to the bill being reported negatively, as I have stated, I told the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott) yesterday afternoon that tomorrow morning, meaning this morning, the action of the committee would be divluged. The gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott) takes issue with that. The gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott) was a member of the committee and had a perfect right to be there. As a matter of fact, he is a member of that committee and has not made his appearance at any time. The question arises that there has been a general demand and solicitation for this bill to be reported. I have one communication to receive in which the committee was urged to report this bill, with the exception of a few members of the House, who evidently had a personal interest in the bill; and, as I have said, the committee generally felt as though it should not act on this bill at the time I spoke to the parties. Gentleman, there is no power in this State that could induce the chairman of the Municipal Corporations Committee to enter into any deal that has a steal in it, and he will not be a party to any bill of the character of this kind where it is a pure fraud upon the citizens of Philadelphia and an attempt to steal the fund which is now in their hands. Gentlemen, I sincerely ask you to sustain the action of the committee and disregard the remarks in reference to secrecy. As a matter of fact, it was open and above board on the part of every member of the committee. I sincerely ask every member of the House to vote the motion down.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) kindly tell the House the merits and the demerits of the bill in detail?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I understand the motion before the House is to place the bill upon the calendar; the merits of the bill cannot be entered into at this time.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander).

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) to tell the House what is the snake in the bill he refers to, and to refer to the paragraph it is in.

Mr. STADLANDER. Mr. Speaker, it is not the merits of the bill we are discussing; at a later time I will inform the House.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander).

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) to tell the members what the steal is in the bill, and to refer to the portion of the bill showing a steal.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I will reply as I did in my former answer.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander).

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) if he ever read the bill.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, my remarks demonstrate that I have studied the bill.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) to reply to the interrogation whether he ever read this bill.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, for the information of the Speaker and members of the House, I will say, yes.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) what is the bill, tell me what bill is it?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I will explain that when it comes before the House.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander).

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) whether he is opposing this bill coming before the House individually, and really want to ask for an explanation.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I am not free to inform the House as to the action of the committee.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander).

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) who were the members of the subcommittee that he appointed to have charge of this bill.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman was in the House yesterday and heard my answer to the question yesterday.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I insist on having the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) either refuse to answer or to answer and tell the names of the gentlemen. If he really appointed them, he knows the names and who they were.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, the deliberations of the committee are secret.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that this interrogation is going rather far afield. The question before the House is the question of placing the bill on the calendar notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the committee.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) who was the Philadelphia member of his committee whom he appointed on the subcommittee to consider this bill.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott) had attended the meeting he would have ascertained that fact.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Stadtlander) whether it was Mr. Lafferty, who represents Senator Penrose's district in this House?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I refuse to divulge the name, because the deliberations of the committee are secret.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I am a member of the Municipal Corporations Committee, and I received no notice of the meeting. It has been the custom of the committee to have a notice read at the desk fixing the time of meeting. I am much interested in this bill along with other citizens of Philadelphia. When I understood the bill was reported negatively, I knew the meeting was held in secret. We are told that a notice was put on the board for a meeting at 3:30. This House adjourned, and when it adjourned there was no notice on the board, because I walked down and looked at the board. There was nothing posted up on the board. Why should anyone object to this bill? Why should we not give the people of Philadelphia what is asked for in this bill? I say let the people decide. Why should this House refuse to play fair? The people of Philadelphia have the right to decide whether the money should lie idle without interest being paid on it. Why should not the money be used and the people of Philadelphia have the benefit from it? I think the House should be fair with Philadelphia. If we believe the money should not be used we should be permitted to pay the money back, and the taxpayers of Philadelphia not be compelled to keep paying interest indefinitely for money they cannot use.

Mr. MILNER. Mr. Speaker, the action of the Municipal Corporations Committee of this House in reporting this bill with a negative recommendation, is open to every evidence of fraud. I am a member of the Municipal Corporations Committee, and as the members of the House know, I come from a Philadelphia district and we, in Philadelphia, are vitally interested in this bill, because it means the improvement of our transit facilities. I received no notice whatever of the meeting that was held in the dark, in which this bill was stabbed in the back. I passed into the corridor to look at the bulletin board, because I was waiting to hear from the chairman of the committee whether or not the meeting would be held, and not hearing, I wanted to know if the meeting was posted, and if it was posted; it was carefully posted hours afterwards and then rubbed out. I received no personal notice of this meeting and no notice was given from the desk. We men in Philadelphia are vitally interested and if any one was given notice we should have been given notice. It is fortunately not a factional matter and it should have been posted. This is a proposition—a business proposition—to enable us to go forward with our transit facilities. The representatives of the business men's associations of Philadelphia are here today awaiting the action of this House on this bill, because this measure is of vital importance to the business men of Philadelphia. Representatives of the Chamber of Commerce of Philadelphia are here waiting to learn what the House will do. Other interested associations are here and the newspaper press of Philadelphia are interested. We insist upon this bill being given fair treatment. There is no cheat in the bill. This bill provides for an election which is to go before the people of Philadelphia to vote upon this proposition as they see fit. This bill provides for an election in which the people of Philadelphia shall vote for providing the money so that the work can be completed, and if completed, it will be in the interest and for the welfare of the City of Philadelphia and will help our city to go forward with its improvements and put it on the map as one of the big cities of the United States.

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, as a member of the Committee on Municipal Corporations, I left the floor of this House yesterday afternoon, and as I passed the bulletin board I read the notice of the meeting of this committee at 3:30, which I attended, and I sincerely hope that the House will sustain the action of the committee.

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, in view of the fact that the time of this session of the Legislature is limited, and as a certain amount of legislation is before us to be passed upon, it seems to me that we have spent sufficient time in the discussion of this one measure, and because of this fact I think this House is ready to take action, and I, therefore, ask for the previsious question.

Mr. MEHRING. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that the only question before the House is the previous question.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order. A question of personal privilege is always in order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the gentleman's point of order is not well taken.

The previous question was moved by twenty members, as follows:

Messrs. Cook, Bechtold, Baldrige, Brady, Bucher, Collier, Dithrich, Flynn, Geary, Goehring, Heffernan, Heyburn, Lauler, Mangan, Marcus, Marshall, McKim, Albert Millar, Quigley, Shunk, Sinclair, Wagner, West, Willert, Woner, and others.

On the question,

Shall the main question now be put?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Scott) that House Bill No. 1621 (Senate Bill No. 554) be placed upon the calendar, notwithstanding the negative recommendation of the committee?

The "yeas" and "nays" were required by Mr. Scott and Mr. Glass, and were taken.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The affirmative roll was verified as follows:

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BENCHOFF. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have this bill explained. Will some one in the House please explain its provisions?

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I had a consultation with Senator Crow concerning this bill. I believe there is a condition existing at Springdale, Pennsylvania, where some coal concern owns a coal breaker on one side of the river, while the deposits of coal lie upon the other side. They would like a tunnel under the rive to get across on the other side and dig out the coal under their holdings. I asked Senator Crow whether he would agree to have an amendment put into this bill which would provide that all coal dug out from under the bed of the river shall be paid for by the coal company to the State. He has agreed to that amendment, which has now been put in.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. ALBERT MILLAR. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. ULSH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1679 (Senate Bill No. 1054), entitled

An Act to reapel the act approved the thirteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred and five (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and fifty-two) entitled "An Act providing that the right of eminent domain as respects the appropriation of streams rivers or waters or the lands covered thereby shall not be exercised by water companies incorporated under the law"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALLAN D. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, this is a very important piece of legislation and I believe it should not be passed by this House without its purpose being very clearly known. This bill repeals the Act of 1905, Pamphlet Laws one hundred and fifty-two, which law is as follows: "That no water company hereafter incorporated under any law shall have powers or exercise the right of eminent domain as respects the appropriation of the streams, rivers or waters of this Commonwealth, or any of them, nor the land covered thereby." This Act of 1905 was passed after two messages concerning this subject had been sent to the Legislature by Governor Pennypacker. One was in his general message to the Legislature and the other was a special message on this particular subject. It is of interest to know what Governor Pennypacker stated at that time. He said as follows, in part: "It is high time that attention should be given to the preservation of our streams, gifts of God to humanity, which are essential to happiness, to comfort, and even to life. In Western Asia are vast lands where once were teeming civilization, now baron wastes, because the people did not understand how to take care of their water supplies. Our streams are losing both beauty and utility, and are being encrouched upon by filling along their banks and using them as dumps for the refuse and pollution which comes from mills, factories and habitations. They are also being seized upon by those who hope to make them commercially profitable, and in some instances the waters are being diverted from their channels." Later he says this: "Probably nine-tenths of the charters for water companies which have come before me in the last two years have been instances in which the parties securing the grants had no intention of supplying water to consumers, but sought to get privileges which would be available in the market." Mr. Speaker, the Legislature of 1905 heeded the warning of Governor Pennypacker, and enacted the law which we are now asked to repeal. This repeal, I believe, to be very unwise. I believe that never again should the remaining water supply of the State be thrown open to private exploitation, for these water supplies will be of untold value to future generations. Rather, I believe that this State should follow the policy of the National Government and take over the waters and adjacent lands and then by lease or license, for a limited number of years, permit their development by private corporations. Mr. Speaker, I hope the gentlemen of the House will defeat this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. Speaker, when the gentleman from Dauphin (Mr. Albert Millar) made his motion, I waited with the usual parliamentary courtesy until the question was fairly put to the House. At that point I arose to my feet and called for recognition from the Chair, at the same time my colleagues adding their voices calling for a division. The Chair saw fit not to recognize me at that time. The bill which was being postponed was opposed by a mighty majority in this House, and I insist ,Mr. Speaker, that the postponement was not due to any laxness of duty on my part or to any disregard of my constituency, who are vitally interested in the bill; but it was due to the fact that the Chair saw fit not to recognize me at that time.

The SPEAKER. The House has passed from the bill. The Chair did not see the gentleman.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, June 13, 1919.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives recalling from the Governor House Bill No. 1527.

Accordingly the original bill is herewith returned.

WM. C. SPROUL,

Mr. BIGLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill, be laid on the table.

Mr. ALLUM. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1673 (Senate Bill No. 831), entitled

An Act regulating the licensing to practice dentistry of honorably discharged soldiers sailors and marines who served during the war with Germany and who were licensed and qualified to practice dentistry in other states

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

One the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WHITEMAN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: Personally I yield to no man in doing honor to the soldiers, but I believe the duty of this House is first to the public. This bill would require no dental examination in Pennsylvania to admit to the practice of dentistry in this State any soldier or sailor or marine who may have passed the dental examination in any other state of the Union, irrespective of what that examination may have been or irrespective of his qualifications. I submit to the House that this bill is far too broad in what it proposes to do. I would call the attention of this House to the fact that it was but yesterday that the Governor of this Commonwealth vetoed a bill similar in its kind relating to the practice of law.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: As a practicing dentist in Philadelphia, many matters come up before me here regarding dentistry, and I feel that the members of the House look to the practicioners of that profession to give them the advice necessary and to guide them in voting upon dental measures. As much as I admire these soldier boys and sailors, who have served in the service during the war, to whom I feel that we owe a debt of gratitude for what they have done, it seems to me and I feel that if this bill were amended so that it would apply to the soldier boys of Pennsylvania, then I could see my way clear to support it; but as it stands now, the bill reads that any practicing dentist from any state in the Union, after the close of the war, can come here into Pennsylvania and practice dentistry without standing our State board examination. Whether you consider that the proper thing or not, I don't know, but I feel rather timid about talking on this particular subject, and I cannot support this bill as it stands.

BILL DROPPED FROM THE CALENDAR.

Mr. JOHN T. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. MEHRING. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 551.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

An Act to promote the upbuilding of national vitality and of efficient citizenship through the establishment of physical education and training for the pupils of both sexes in the public schools of the Commonwealth and creating a Bureau of Physical Education under the direction of the State Superintendent of Schools to carry out the provisions thereof and making an appropriation

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BIGLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to make a statement bearing on this bill, No. 551. A great many members voted in error on this bill confusing it with another bill called the Military Training Bill. This is a physical training bill and a good deal of time and preparation has been taken on this bill. Its purpose is to improve the physical condition of the boys and girls in the public schools throughout the State. We have gone over the matter very carefully with the new State Superintendent and he favors it unqualifiedly. I talked with him on this bill myself and he is very much in favor of it. There is one good reason why, it seems to me, we ought to pass this bill. The war boards during the examinations for war service, discovered that seventy-eight per cent. of the young men that were examined who came from the public schools were inefficient, physically, and in the country districts the percentage was larger than it was in the towns. It seems to me that it is high time that we take steps to do something for the physical improvement of the boys and girls in the public schools of this Commonwealth. I think if we would follow that old dictum that comes down to us that "in order to have a sound mind we need a sound body," it will be advantageous and I, therefore, will ask the members of this House to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeabl yto order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1542 (Senate Bill No. 722), entitled

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws one thousand one hundred twenty-three) entitled "An Act establishing in each county a board of viewers prescribing their duties providing for their appointment as viewers road juries juries of view and commissioners to view land and providing for the charges upon the respective counties in the matter of salaries costs and expenses thereof"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if there is anyone in the House who can explain this bill and the necessity for it.

Mr. CLUTTON. Mr. Speaker, this bill does not change the present law in regard to viewers. We have a condition in Somerset County which this bill is intended to remedy. We have a board of nine viewers and the Judge appointed three of them to make a view of a certain road. There were exceptions filed to that view. He appointed three others and there was an exception filed to the report of that view. He appointed the three remaining members of that board and of the remaining members only one was available,—one was sick and the other was interested in the road. That left us without any viewers to view that particular road. This bill provides that these viewers shall be appointed when no others are available and their term of office expires upon the filing of their report on that particular view.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Somerset (Mr. Clutton).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Somerset (Mr. Clutton) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CLUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman, inasmuch as I could not hear all of his explanation, how many viewers they have in his county?

Mr. CLUTTON. Mr. Speaker, nine.

Mr. BALDRIGE. How many?

Mr. CLUTTON. Nine.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Nine regularly appointed?

Mr. CLUTTON. Yes, in squads of three, nine in all.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker this is the County Board of Viewers Act that they are attempting to amend. Now the gentleman from Somerset just stated that they have nine members, three squads of three each. That is the same number we have in Allegheny County, and I know of no instance since the time of the appointment of that County Board in Allegheny County where there has been any necessity of going outside of the County Board of Viewers to get viewers in any particular case. As I take this amendment, the bad feature of it is that the men on this Board of Viewers, if the court sees fit to appoint them, shall serve until the report shall have been filed and the tendency will be to delay the report because it will mean more money for them the longer they serve. This is an attempt to weaken the present system of the County Board of Viewers and I think it should be voted down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Mr. JOHN T. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 891, file folio 2951, entitled "An Act regulating the licensing to practice dentistry of honorably discharged soldiers sailors and marines who served during the war with Germany and who were licensed and qualified to practice dentistry in other States," was dropped from the calendar be reconsidered.

Mr. MEHRING. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1714 (Senate Bill No. 1152), as follows:

An Act authorizing county commissioners to appropriate moneys to certain cities or boroughs to assist in the erection of comfort stations

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the county commissioners of any county may appropriate moneys to assist any city or borough being the county seat within the boundaries of such county to construct and maintain comfort stations

Section 2 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHARLES A. REBER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: I wish to explain this bill, as there are several members in the House who are opposed to it, because it says public comfort stations may be constructed by the county commissioners in a city, and the county commissioners may appropriate money to the boroughs and cities to build public comfort stations in towns or county seats. Some of the members have asked that all be included. The reason for this is that the Legislature passed a similar bill some time ago, which was vetoed by the Governor. A number of people interested in this bill came to see the Governor and the present bill was drawn, and he said he would sign it if it would only include county seats. I ask you to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Section 23 Every society transacting business under this act shall annually on or before the first day of March file with the Insurance Commissioner in such form as he may require a statement under oath of its president and secretary or corresponding officer of its transactions for the calendar year ending December thirty-first last preceding and of its condition and standing on that date and shall include therein all accrued liability under unpaid claims where notice was received by the society at its home office before the end of such calendar year and the same were approved for payment before the filing of the report No society shall be required to include in such report any claim or claims notice of which had not been received by the society at its home office before the end of such year It shall also furnish such other information as the Insurance Commissioner may deem necessary to a proper exhibit of its business and plan of working The Commissioner may at other times require any further statement he may deem necessary to be made relating to such society

In addition to the annual report herein required each society shall annually report to the Commissioner a valuation of its benefit fund obligations in force on December thirty-first last preceding excluding those entered into within the year for which the report is filed in cases where the contribution for the first year in whole or in part are used for current expenses Such report of valuation shall show as contingent liabilities the present mid-year value of the promised benefits provided in the constitution and laws of such society under certificates then subject to valuation at not more than the average rate of interest earned on its invested assets during five calendar years preceding the date of such annual report less such portion thereof as may have been assumed by other associations or companies and as contingent assets the present midyear value at the same rate of interest of the future net contributions provided in its constitution and laws as the same are in practice actually collected From which resulting balance may be deducted the present worth at the same rate of interest of the probable future annual savings in death losses below the estimated mortality in the mortality table used in said valuation calculated on the basis of the average annual savings in death losses during the five calendar years preceding the date of such annual report

In lieu of the above valuation any society at its option may show the net value of its benefit fund obligations subject to valuation at the rate of interest as hereinbefore provided and said net value when computed in the case of monthly contributions may be the means of the terminal values for the end of the preceding and of the current certificate years from which said tabular values shall be deducted such portion thereof as may have been assumed by other associations or companies and in addition there may be deducted the present worth of the probable future annual savings in death losses as specified in the preceding paragraph

Every such valuation report shall include as a contingent liability an estimate made by or on behalf of the society of the probable future payments under unpaid claims notice of which was received by the society at its home office before the end of the calendar year covered by the annual report but which had not been approved for payment at the date of such report Deferred payments or installments of claims whether involving a life contingency or not shall be included in the valuation report as contingent liabilities on the happenings of the contingency upon which such payment or installments are thereafter to be paid All such liability shall be the present worth of such future payments or installments at the average rate of interest earned by the society during the five calendar years preceding the date of such annual report

Each valuation report shall be certified by a competent accountant or actuary or at the request and expense of the society verified by the actuary of the department of insurance of the home state of the society and shall be filed with the Insurance Commissioner on or before the first day of June succeeding the submission of the last preceding annual report The minimum standard of valuation for all benefit fund obligations except for disability and dependent benefits shall be the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality hereinbefore referred to or at the option of the society by any other standard table or a table based upon the society's own experience of at least twenty years and covering not less than one hundred thousand lives with an interest assumption of not more than the average rate of interest earned on its invested assets during the five calendar years preceding such annual report

Every valuation report shall set forth clearly and fully the mortality and interest basis and the method of valuation Any society providing for disability benefits shall keep a separate account of the same and in its said valuation report shall charge as a liability the balance to the credit of such fund or funds at the date of such valuation Where a combined contribution table is used by a society for both death and permanent and total disability benefits the valuation may be of death benefit only and in such case a separate accounting shall not be required

A report of such valuation with such explanation as the society may deem advisable shall be printed and mailed to each beneficial member of the society not later than July first of each year or in lieu thereof may be published in the society's official paper and the issue containing the same mailed to each beneficial member of the society The valuation herein provided for shall not be considered or regarded as a test of the financial solvency of the society but each society shall be held to be legally solvent so long as the funds in its possession are equal to or in excess of its matured liabilities

Section 23B In lieu of the valuation hereinbefore required any society may value its certificates on a basis herein designated "accumulated basis" by crediting each member with the net amount contributed for each year and with interest at approximately the net rate earned and by charging him with his share of the losses for each year herein designated "cost of insurance" and carrying the balance if any to his credit The charge for the cost of insurance may be according to the actual experience of the society supplied to a table of mortality recognized by the law of this Commonwealth and shall take into consideration the amount at risk during each year which shall be the amount payable at death less the credit to the member

Unless specifically provided in its constitution or laws no charge shall be carried forward from the first valuation hereunder against any member for any past share of losses exceeding the contributions and credit If after the first valuation any member's share of losses for any year exceeds his credit including the contribution for the year the contribution shall be increased to cover his share of the losses

Any such excess share of losses chargeable to any member may be paid out of a fund or contributions especially created or required for such purpose Any member may transfer to any plan adopted by the society with net rates on which tabular reserves are maintained and on transfer shall be entitled to take such application of his credit as provided in the laws of the society Certificates issued rerated or readjusted on a basis providing for adequate rates with adequate reserves to mature such certificates upon assumptions for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this Commonwealth shall be valued on such basis herein designated the "Tabular basis" Provided that if on the first valuation under this section a deficiency in reserve shall be shown for any such certificate the same shall be valued on the accumulation basis

Whenever in any society having members upon the tabular basis and upon the accumulation basis the total of all costs of insurance provided for any year shall be insufficient to meet the actual death and disability losses for the year the deficiency may be met for the year from the available funds after setting aside all credits in the reserve or from increasd contributions or by an increase in the number of assessments applied in the society as a whole or to classes of members as may be specified in its laws Savings from a lower amount of death losses may be returned in like manner as may be specified in its laws

If the laws of the society so provide the assets representing the reserves of any separate class of members may be carried separately for such class as if in an independent society and the required reserve accumulation of such class so set apart shall not thereafter be merged with the assets of other classes of the society

A table showing the credits to individual members for each age and year of entry and showing opposite each credit the tabular reserve required in the whole life or other plan of insurance specified in the contract according to assumptions for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this Commonwealth and adopted by the society shall be filed by the society with each annual report and also be furnished to each member before July first of each year

In lieu of the aforesaid statement there may be furnished to each member within the same time a statement giving the credit for such member and giving the tabular reserve and level rate required for the transfer carrying out the plan of insurance specified in the contract No table or statement need be made or furnished where the reserves are maintained on the tabular basis For this purpose individual bookkeeping accounts for each member shall not be required and all calculations may be made by actuarial methods

Nothing herein contained shall prevent the maintenance of such surplus over and above the credits on the accumulation basis and the reserves on the tabular basis as any society may provide by or pursuant to its laws nor be construed as giving to the individual member any right or claim to any such reserve or credit other than in manner and as expressed in its constitution and laws

If the valuation of the certificates as hereinbefore provided shall show that the present value of future net contributions together with the admitted assets is less than the present value of the promised benefits and accrued liabilities such society shall have the power either to collect additional assessments or to increase the rates of contribution from the members to meet such deficiency and such society shall also have the power to classify its members according to the adequacy of the rates they are contributing and charge each class with its proportion of any deficiency disclosed by a valuation

Section 24 Any person officer member or examining physician of any society authorized to do business under this act who shall knowingly or wilfully make any false or fradulent statement or representation in or with reference to any application for membership or for the purpose of obtaining money from or benefit in any society transacting business under this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than one year or both in the discretion of the court

Any person who shall wilfully make a false statement of any material fact or thing in a sworn statement as to the death or disability of a certificate holder in any such society for the purpose of procuring payment of a benefit named in the certificate of such holder and any person who shall wilfully make any false statement in any verified report or declaration under oath required or authorized by this act shall be guilty of perjury and shall be proceeded against and punished as provided by the statutes of this Commonwealth in relation to the crime or perjury

Section 27 Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to affect or apply to grand or subordinate lodges of purely social or labor organizations nor to societies which limit their membership to any one hazardous occupation nor to similar societies which do not issue benefit certificates nor to an association of local lodges of a society now doing business in the Commonwealth which provide death benefits not to exceed five hundred dollars to any one person or disability benefits not exceeding three hundred dollars in any one year to any one person or both but any society conducting an insurance branch and issuing certificates and paying death benefits of more than five hundred dollars such insurance branch of that society shall comply with all of the provisions of this act nor to any contracts of reinsurance business on such plan in this Commonwealth nor to domestic societies which limit their membership to a particular religion nor to the employes of a particular city or town designated firm business house or corporation nor to domestic lodges orders or associations of a purely religious charitable and benevolent description which do not provide for a death benefit of more than three hundred dollars to any one person in any one year Any society heretofore organized and now actually operating which limits its membership to the members of one or more fraternal orders which said members are required to have been proposed elected by ballot initiated admitted and obligated through subordinate lodges under prescribed ritualistic ceremonies shall be regarded as hereby complying with the requirements of this act as to subordinate lodges and the admission of members therein and shall upon compliance with all other provisions of this act be deemed a fraternal beneficiary society operating on the lodge system and entitled to license as such hereunder
